

RIFF RAFF

MUSIC COMPETITION BASED ON THE POPULAR TELEVISION SHOWS 'NAME THAT TUNE', 'DON'T FORGET THE LYRICS!'

Newlyweds choose the members of the two opposing teams. They have to guess the titles and authors of different songs basing on the guitar riffs played by the band. Participants can demonstrate their knowledge of songs by singing recognized tunes.

Newlyweds act as judges.

COMPLIANCE TEST (THE SHOE GAME)

IN THIS COMPETITION THE MAJOR ROLE IS PLAYED BY NEWLYWEDS. THE PURPOSE OF A PLAY IS TO CHECK THE CHARACTER COMPATIBILITY BETWEEN BRIDE AND GROOM

Newlyweds sit on the chairs back to back. Both the bride and groom receive two cards signed: bride – 'mąż' (husband) and 'ja' (I), groom – 'żona' (wife) and 'I'. Then, the emcee asks questions such as 'who said 'I love you' first?', 'who drives a car better?', 'who is going to charge money?', etc. Bride's and groom's task is to answer the questions by holding up one of the cards. The answers are often surprising and humorous.

COMPETITION FOR MIXED PAIRS

Competitors are paired up. The band plays dance rhythms. When the music stops the competitors have to perform commands announced by the emcee. The Master or Mistress of Ceremonies mentions some parts of the body that dancers must put on the dance floor ('three legs and two arms', 'two legs and two hands', etc.). The play requires fitness and adroitness.

MEN DANCE CONTEST

DANCE COMPETITION ONLY FOR MALE PAIRS

Competitors are paired up. The band plays songs in different styles (tango, rock'n'roll, jive, disco, waltz). Guys dance to the rhythm of the music presenting their dancing skills the best they can. Those who get the most applause will be the winner in the end.

CHAIRS FOR LADIES (SCAVENGER HOUNTS) (only in one language)

COMPETITION ONLY FOR LADIES

We invite few ladies to play. We place few chairs in the centre of the dance floor, arranged in a circle, backs inside, seats outside. There is one chair less than the number of the players. All ladies dance around the chairs to the music. The leader (or Newlyweds) asks them to fulfill a task when the music stops and removes a chair as soon as they've gone for their errand. The tasks are one per round and they can be: to bring a right male shoe, a clock, a leaf, a spoon, etc. The last to arrive back from the task has no chair and quits the game.

THE ZOO TRIP (only in polish)

A PLAY FOR FOURTEEN PEOPLE. BRIDE AND GROOM ACT AN ACTIVE ROLE AS TEAM LEADERS AND JUDGES AT THE SAME TIME

Newlyweds and other competitors sit on the chairs placed in two rows. They have assigned different roles: TATA (dad), MAMA (mom), JACEK (son), WITEK (son), ZOSIA (daughter), AZOR (the dog), SŁOŃ (an elephant). The participants' task is to execute their assigned roles by standing up and running around their teams. When they reach their place, they have to again sit down. The fastest team wins the competition.
